BOOK SYNOPSIS

On an out-of-the-way Virginia country road, four generations of the Woodruff family struggled and overcame the odds to create Woodruffs CafE and Pie Shop, home of what Southern Living magazine called "the best apple pie ever (yes, really ever)." With Southern grace, hospitality and humor, Angela Woodruff Scott tells the uplifting tale of a family who carved out their niche from slavery to the celebrated Pie Shop. It is a tale of courage, heartache, perseverance, and triumph over unbearable obstacles, richly sprinkled with colorful characters and outlandish events. A Little Slice of Heaven is a heartwarming read that'll make you feel like family; it is a book to share with everyone you care about.
